

Story Sharing: Part 5 - A Little Bit Random

Throughout history, sharing our personal stories and histories has brought people closer. Now that we have a bit of time, maybe we could reminisce together?

What's the best age to be?

What are reading at the moment?

Where would you like to go on holiday?

What's the last thing you spent money on?

What's the last good news story you heard?

Have you ever seen or met anyone famous?

When was the last time you swam in the sea?

Who is currently in the news that you admire?

What are your current ambitions? Big or small!

When did you last go out for a coffee or a meal?

Describe an interesting photograph you've seen.

Where is the most beautiful place you've visited?

What was the last thing you lost? Have you found it?

What advice would you give to someone half your age?

What device would you like someone to invent for you?

Do you have any hobbies that take up a lot of your time?

Is there any book or film that has had a big effect on you?

What is the last piece of music to get stuck in your head?

Do you recycle? Are you concerned about climate change?

If you were a superhero what special power would you want?

Would you describe yourself as a risk taker? Why? / Why not?

Is it a good idea to talk about politics and religion when socialising?

How do you imagine the world will have changed 25 years from now?

Who is your favourite sports team? How are they doing at the moment?

What was the first item in today's news or on the front page of your paper?

In the event of a disaster, what item would you try to save from your home?

Which people (living or dead) would you invite to your fantasy dinner party?

Do you enjoy shopping for clothes? What's your most successful recent purchase?

If you had foreign visitors coming to stay, what tourist sights would you show them?
